Let It Go

Fletcher Clark

Gently ♩ = 88

Soprano
Alto
Tenor
Bass

1. If you smite my left cheek as we speak, I'll of-fer you the
2. Though the world makes you stunt-ed and small, your roots re-main still
3. Should those bouts of fru-stra-tion set in, when time seems not to
4. Though my faith and my vi-sion be spent, I know what I must

S
A T
B right. If your fear of the dark-ness be true, I'll of-fer up the light. LET IT strong. Fresh new leaves to re-spire with the earth, as wind still sings its song. Let it pass, Reins won't work on a slow mov-ing mule, so Je-sus rode an ass. Let it know. I will see my ti-mid-i-ty fade by mere-ly let-ting go. LET IT

GO,   LET IT   GO.   When the   bur - den   seems   too   heav - y,   LET IT   GO.   LET IT grow,   let it   grow.   When you   know   the   plant   is   health - y,   let it   grow.   Let it know,   let it   know,   when the   beast   of   bur - den   does - n't   want   to   go.   Let it GO,   LET IT   GO.   When the   bur - den   seems   too   heav - y,   LET IT   GO.   LET IT

D.C.

GO,   LET IT   GO.   When the   bur - den   seems   too   hea - vy   LET IT   GO. grow,   let it   grow.   When you   know   the   plant   is   health - y,   let it   grow.
know,   let it   know,   when the   beast   of   bur - den   does - n't   want   to   go.
GO,   LET IT   GO.   When the   bur - den   seems   too   heav - y,   LET IT   GO.