

Let It Go

Fletcher Clark

Gently (♩ = 88)

S, A

1. If you smite my left cheek as we speak, I'll of - fer you the right.
2. Though the world makes you stunt - ed and small, your roots re - main still strong.
3. Should those bouts of fru - stra - tion set in, when time seems not to pass,
4. Though my faith and my vi - sion be spent, I know what I must know.

T, B

5

If your fear of the dark - ness be true, I'll of - fer up the light. LET IT GO, LET IT GO, Fresh new leaves to re - spire with the earth, as wind still sings its song. Let it grow, let it
Reins won't work on a slow mov - ing mule, so Je - sus rode an ass. Let it know, let it
I will see my ti - mid - i - ty fade by mere - ly let - ting go. LET IT GO, LET IT

10

GO. When the bur - den seems too heav - y, LET IT GO. LET IT GO, LET IT grow. When you know the plant is health - y, let it grow. Let it grow, let it know, when the beast of bur - den does - n't want to go. Let it know, let it
GO. When the bur - den seems too heav - y, LET IT GO. LET IT GO, LET IT

14

GO. When the bur - den seems too heav - y LET IT GO. LET IT GO, LET IT grow. When you know the plant is health - y, let it grow. Let it grow, let it know, when the beast of bur - den does - n't want to go. Let it know, let it GO. When the bur - den seems too heav - y, LET IT GO. LET IT GO, LET IT

D.C.

D.C.